ANNEX I CRITERIA AND SELECTION PROCESS OF THE COMPANY'S AUDITOR (SA)

ANNEX II ANNUAL ASSESSMENT PROCESS OF THE COMPANY'S AUDITOR (SA)

Article 1 – AUDC institution

The purpose of this Internal Regulation is to establish the rules relating to the organisation, functioning, powers and duties of the Audit Committee (AUDC) of EDP – Energias de Portugal, S.A. (Company or EDP), appointed by resolution of the General and Supervisory Board (GSB), as set forth in number 2 of article 444 of the Commercial Company Code (CCC) and number 2 of article 23 of the Company's Articles of Association.

Article 2 - Mission and Principles

1. Within the scope of its powers, the AUDC is responsible for carrying out the functions described in Article 12 of this Regulation and its mission is to monitor and supervise on a permanent basis:
 - a) Financial matters and accounting practices.
 - b) Internal audit practices and procedures.
 - c) The internal mechanisms and procedures of the Internal Control System for Financial reporting (ICSFR).
 - d) Matters relating to risk management and control system.
 - e) The activities and mechanisms of the compliance management system.
 - f) The activity and independence of the Statutory Auditor (SA) / Society of Chartered Accountants (SROC) of the company.
 - g) The systems for assessing and resolving conflicts of interest, particularly with regard to the Company's relations with shareholders.
2. The AUDC should also monitor the execution of ongoing investment projects as stated in article 12 of this Regulation.
3. The activity to be pursued by the AUDC, in the sphere of its functions, also focuses on the companies in a dominant or group relationship with the Company pursuant to the Securities Code (Subsidiary or Group Companies) and may concern elements of relevant information from other companies directly or indirectly owned by the Company or by Subsidiary Companies or the Group.

4. The AUDC and its members shall guide their actions in strict compliance with the Law, the Articles of Association, the resolutions of the General Shareholders' Meeting (GSM) and these Regulations and shall consider the recommendations relating to the best corporate governance practices.

Article 3 - Composition

1. The AUDC is composed of at least three independent members, in the sense defined by the GSB Internal Regulations, with adequate professional qualifications for the sector in which the Company operates and an adequate diversity of skills, knowledge and professional experience, including necessarily a member who has a higher education degree appropriate to the performance of his/her duties and knowledge in auditing or accounting.
2. The AUDC shall be chaired by an independent member, as defined in the By-Laws and GSB Internal Regulation.
3. The following may not be elected members of the AUDC:
 - a) Persons who perform functions in a rival company and who represent or act on behalf of such a company or who are in any other way bound to the interests of the rival company.
 - b) The spouses, relatives or relations by marriage up to the 3rd degree, including, in indirect line, of persons barred under the provision in the previous paragraph.
4. AUDC members are elected for a term of office of the same duration in relation to the GSB mandate that elects them.

Article 4 - Functioning

1. The AUDC meets when convened by its Chairman or two of its members, either on their own initiative or at the request of any GSB member, the Executive Board of Directors (EBD) Chairman or the statutory auditor (SA) of the Company.
2. The AUDC shall meet with an appropriate frequency to the performance of its duties and shall at least meet quarterly.
3. Notice of the convening and agenda of each meeting shall be sent to all AUDC members at least five working days in advance of the date of the meeting.

4. The agenda should also be sent to the GSB Chairman and the EBD Chairman.
5. The AUDC may decide on the participation of external elements in its meetings, and may, in particular, regarding the Company and its Subsidiaries/Group Companies, together or separately, interview and request the presence of:
 - a) Members of the Board of Directors.
 - b) Members of the supervisory bodies.
 - c) The SA (Statutory Auditor).
 - d) Senior managers or other employees, in liaison with the competent management bodies.
 - e) Shareholders.
 - f) External experts.
6. The AUDC meetings with the SA will be held without the presence of any EBD member, except when the presence of the EBD is indispensable for the pursuit of the purpose of the meeting and during the period strictly necessary for that purpose.
7. The AUDC meets and decides with the necessary presence of the majority of its members, and its decisions are taken by a majority of votes, with the respective Chairman having the casting vote in the event of a tie in the vote.
8. The minutes of each AUDC meeting shall be drawn up and signed by all Committee members participating in that meeting.
9. To develop its activity, the AUDC may request the GSB Chairman for technical support from the GSB Support Office.

Article 5 – Powers of the AUDC Chairman

The AUDC Chairman is especially responsible for:

- a) Representing the Audit Committee in and out of court;
- b) Coordinate the AUDC activity, in conjunction with the GSB Chairman, as well as convene and chair the respective meetings;
- c) Exercise the casting vote;
- d) Ensure the correct execution of the AUDC resolutions.

- e) Ensure the circulation of information, by the AUDC members, on the matters treated and other information considered essential to the performance of their duties.
- f) Ensure that information related to the Committee's activity is made available to the other GSB members, without prejudice to restrictions on access to information for members who are in a situation of conflict of interests.

Article 6 - Incompatibilities

1. In addition to other specifically applicable, the AUDC members are subject to the incompatibility rules set forth in paragraphs a), b), c), d), e), f), g) e h) of n. 1 of article 414-A (ex vi article 434, n. 4) and article 437, n. 1, of the Companies Code, as well as Article 10 of EDP's Articles of Association.
2. Without prejudice to the power of the AUDC to decide on the incompatibility of its members, each member shall be responsible for the permanent monitoring of the absence of any circumstances that may lead to his/her situation becoming incompatible with the performance of his/her duties.
3. Any member who has doubts regarding a situation of incompatibility, in relation to him or herself or any other member, shall raise the case to the AUDC Chairman, who shall initiate an assessment process with the GSB or a Temporary Committee created for this purpose, to issue a reasoned opinion on the incompatibility.

Article 7 - Independence

1. An AUDC member who complies with the independence requirements defined in the GSB Internal Regulations shall be considered independent.
2. Without prejudice to the AUDC power to assess the independence status of its elected members as such, each one shall be responsible for the permanent monitoring of the absence of any circumstance that might affect this status during the performance of his/her duties.
3. If an AUDC member has doubts as to whether the assumptions of independence in relation to him/her or any other member, he/she shall present the case to the AUDC Chairman, who shall initiate an assessment process with the GSB or Temporary Committee set up for the purpose, to issue a reasoned opinion on the independence status.

Article 8 - Competition

1. Pursuant to Article 10 of the Articles of Association, in the absence of authorization from the General Shareholders' Meeting, the AUDC members may not perform, directly or indirectly, activities in competition with the Company, nor hold positions in a competing company or be appointed on behalf of or on behalf of this company.
2. An AUDC member, elected under Article 10(4) of EDP's Articles of Association, may not attend meetings or parts of meetings in which matters with competitive risk or sensitivity are discussed, in particular matters with an impact on markets where there is competition with the Company, nor access to the respective information and documentation.

Article 9 - Conflicts of Interests

1. When an AUDC member is in a situation of conflict of interests either apparent, potential or real, the member shall inform the AUDC Chairman on the facts that may constitute or give cause to a conflict between his/her interests and social interest.
2. The AUDC Chairman shall inform the GSB Chairman of this fact, who shall start a verification process with the GSB or a Temporary Committee composed by GSB members for that purpose, in order to be issued a reasoned resolution on the matter.
3. The AUDC member that is found in an apparent, potential or real conflict of interests shall not issue opinions, exert influence or carry out any actions in decision-making procedures regarding the conflicting situation, without prejudice to the obligation to provide information and clarifications when requested by the Committee or by its respective members.

Article 10 - Rights and Duties

1. Without affecting their other rights as set forth in law and the EDP's Articles of Association, AUDC members have the right to:
 - a) Obtain information considered essential for the performance of their duties, through the AUDC Chairman.

- b) Attend EBD meetings in which accounts are reviewed.
 - c) Propose to the AUDC Chairman hiring the services of experts and advisors deemed necessary for them to perform their duties, within the agreed budget for such services.
- 2. Without prejudice of other rights set forth in Law and in EDP's Articles of Association, the AUDC Chairman is entitled to request to the GSB Chairman all the information deemed convenient to perform his duties.
- 3. Without affecting their other duties as set forth in the Law and the EDP's Articles of Association, AUDC members have the duty to:
 - a) Always act according to high standards of professionalism, impartiality, care and loyalty in the pursuit of the Company's interests.
 - b) Participate in the AUDC meetings and justify as soon as possible any inability to attend.
 - c) Stay informed to ensure the proper performance of his/her duties.
 - d) Maintain confidentiality of events and information acquired during their duties, except in cases where its communication is permitted by Law.

Article 11 - Evaluation of the AUDC Activity

- 1. The AUDC shall assess any difficulties and obstacles detected by its members regarding the performance of their duties and make every effort to ensure that appropriate measures are taken to remove difficulties and obstacles to the performance of their duties.
- 2. The AUDC shall monitor compliance with rules applicable to the work of its members, those set out in this Regulation.
- 3. Every year, the AUDC shall evaluate:
 - a) The activity developed by the Committee and the contribution made by the members.
